Fault Lines of History sarvad publication

A provocative and surprising exploration of the longest sustained relationships we have in life—those we have with our siblings. Nobody affects us as deeply as our brothers and sisters. Our siblings are our collaborators and co-conspirators, our role models and cautionary tales. They teach us how to resolve conflicts and how not to, how to conduct friendships and when to walk away. Our siblings are the only people we know who truly qualify as partners for life. In this perceptive and groundbreaking book, Jeffrey Kluger explores the complex world of siblings in equal parts science, psychology, sociology, and memoir. Based on cutting-edge research, he examines birth order, twins, genetic encoding of behavioral traits, emotional disorders and their effects on sibling relationships, and much more. With his signature insight and humor, Kluger takes science’s provocative new ideas about the subject and transforms them into smart, accessible insights that will help everyone understand the importance of siblings in our lives.

Love Destination Unknown WHERE INDIA WRITES PUBLICATION

I am you; you are me. We both are in this book. If you hold a bachelor degree in common sense and satire is your first language, you will enjoy the read. The Poetician is a cheeky, colloquial, social, in the face satire about the lives we live in contemporary times. Every poetry is a story; unification of past with present and amalgamation of a skeptical future. The title ‘Practical vs Theory’ makes you realize what a fool this education system had made out of you. ‘Cheekhta-Chillata Shehar’ is a blunt satire on an un-environmentally friendly city. ‘Foodie-Mere ped ki dastaan’ will leave you with a humorous aftertaste. ‘Maryadapurshottam Mard’ is a satirical take on the lives of the eldest sons in the Indian family. ‘Hindi medium ka chatra’ is a satire on the colonial language. ‘Manto’ and ‘Munshi ji’ are odes to the legends. ‘Best friends forever’ deals with the dark world of teenage issues and friendship. ‘Jahaalat’ translates the crassness of modern young society. ‘Parchaiyan’ is my arrogant, angry battle with life. ‘Bachche Zinda hain’ is a raw, compelling, naked truth about how we treat the young citizens of this country. I would say just read and then decide if you found yourself or not.

In these enlightening and eye-opening conversations, the renowned spiritual mentor, Sister BK Shivani reveals how to create a life of joy, contentment and bliss, because we all have the choice and the power to do so. According to her, the reason why there is so little happiness in the world is dependency. Happiness is not dependent on ‘anything’ or ‘anyone’, or found ‘anywhere’. We keep delaying our happiness until things are just right in our life. We think we will be happy in the future and then wonder why we are not happy now. Happiness is only possible when we are able to accept everyone as they are, at every moment, in every situation. This book is a medium for the awakening and acceptance of self-responsibility. Helping us choose our thoughts and feelings aligned with our true nature of purity, peace and love. To make us shift from asking to sharing; from holding on to letting go; from expectations to acceptance; from the past and the future to being in the now. Happiness is a ‘decision’, not a ‘consequence’.

The Story of Guru Nanak Diversion Books

No matter who you are, where you live, or what your life circumstances are, if you’ve gone through the teenage, you must remember the first time you’ve fallen in love. The time when you’ve created your own universe in your mind. The time when you used to fly high and high in your dreams. The time when you used to get butterflies in your stomach. The time when only a smile can melt your heart and a whiff can cure all your pains. But then we grew up and something is left behind, some words, some feelings, some emotions. Something that is left unspoken, the words that left unexpressed. People do move on in life but something remains there for always. Some of them just feel those vibes and some of them make those moments immortal by penning down their heart in form of poetries, writings and shayaris, in their diaries. The book is all about those feelings that are left unexpressed, some words that are left unspoken. Let’s take this moment to celebrate the journey of our lives, and dive into some stories penned down by some awesome co-authors.

A writer puts forth his creative mind into the words, he gives voice to the beats of heart and speaks the language which is unheard. He sets up the combination of his heartbeats in the form of poems and stories. "Sada-e-Dil", a collection of various types of poems written by Owais Ahamd Dar, in which he speaks of life, love, betrayal, division, sister love and its importance in one’s life and other facts. Thus the poems are mainly written in Roman urdu which give a different kind of taste to the eyes and mind that blow the winds of delight to heart. In this book, he has touched the tiles of time on which the youth of day walk and what they suffer. He sings the songs of time and tides and the melodies of a mended and broken heart. It feels great to have such smelling write ups from the young author. Depth of life can be revealed by his poems. A reader needs to merge in his Essence to understand the situation that he wants to convey.

Happiness Unlimited Penguin

The monotheistic religions of Judaism, Christianity, and Islam have severely limited the portrayal of the divine as feminine. But in Hinduism "God" very often means "Goddess." This extraordinary collection explores twelve different Hindu goddesses, all of whom are in some way related to Devi, the Great Goddess. They range from the liquid goddess-energy of the River Ganges to the possessing, entrancing heat of Bhagavati and Seranvali. They are local, like Vindhyavasini, and global, like Kali; ancient, like Saranyu, and modern, like "Mother India." The collection combines analysis of texts with intensive fieldwork, allowing the reader to see how goddesses are worshiped in everyday life. In these compelling essays, the divine feminine in Hinduism is revealed as never before--fascinating, contradictory, powerful.
