ADRIENNE GARRETT

Historical Dictionary of Morocco A&C Black Beginning with Marcel Ophus's documentary The Sorrow and the Pity (1970) there has been an attempt to question the idea of a totally unified, courageous and resistant wartime France. Even more startling have been the increasingly shocking revelations that the politics of collaboration were a mere extension of a deep-seated French anti-semitic tradition. In the shadow of these developments French writers and philosophers today are reflecting on the meaning of Jewish identity in the contemporary world. Auschwitz and After analyses for the first time how the memory of Auschwitz and the collaboration continue to haunt the French. These critical evaluations are accompanied by provocative essays on the "Jewish Question" and the politics of race as they have been studied by writers, historians, philosophers and film makers in postwar France.

Auschwitz and After Markus Wiener Pub In Critical History of the Text of the New Testament (1689), 17th century Oratorian Richard Simon (1638-1712), 'father' of modern biblical criticism, surveys the genuineness, authority, and reliability of all then known manuscript and printed sources of the New Testament.

History of Humanity: From the seventh to the sixteenth century Walter de Gruyter Birth of a National Icon examines the emergence of the intellectual in fin-de-siècle France, setting this important phenomenon against the backdrop of an emerging mass democracy and concentrating on the key role played by the avant-garde.

The Trial of Innocence Walter de Gruyter

Examines the difficulty represented by the textual tradition in Codex Bezae at the point of the Last Supper narrative in St Luke's Gospel. With a survey of explanations of the difficulty, this title examines the disputed words of Luke 22:19b-20 in regards to their style, grammar and theology, to ascertain their source and non-Lukan features.

Le christianisme, le judaïsme, l'islam et la pensée occidentale Bloomsbury Publishing USA

This work includes international secondary literature on anti-Semitism published throughout the world, from the earliest times to the present. It lists books, dissertations, and articles from periodicals and collections from a diverse range of disciplines. Written accounts are included among the recorded titles, as are manifestations of anti-Semitism in the visual arts (e.g. painting, caricatures or film), action taken against Jews and Judaism by discriminating judiciaries, pogroms, massacres and the systematic extermination during the Nazi period. The bibliography also covers works dealing with philo-Semitism or Jewish reactions to anti-Semitism and Jewish self-hate. An informative abstract in English is provided for each entry, and Hebrew titles are provided with English translations.

The Adam and Eve narrative in Genesis 2-3 has gripped not only biblical scholars, but also theologians, artists, philosophers, and almost everyone else. In this engaging study, a master of biblical interpretation provides a close reading of the Yahwist story. As in his other works, LaCocque makes wise use of the Pseudepigrapha and rabbinic interpretations, as well as the full range of modern interpretations. Every reader will be engaged by his insights.

Dreyfus and the Literature of the Third Republic Lexington Books

Au moment où l'Europe prend corps, il est nécessaire de faire retour à sa mémoire commune. Le christianisme, synthèse des legs d'Athènes, de Rome et de Jérusalem, fut le destin de notre continent, l'Esprit, aurait dit Hegel, des nations européennes. Il constitue l'inconscient de la pensée moderne qui est née en s'opposant à lui.

Un regard rétrospectif permet aussi de mettre à nu le refoulé du christianisme, à savoir le judaïsme dont il est né. Nul ne peut plus prétendre aujourd'hui comprendre l'un sans l'autre, pas plus qu'il ne nous est possible d'occulter les apports médiévaux de l'Islam à notre civilisation sommée d'entrer de nouveau en dialogue avec lui. Cette confrontation ne peut que faire surgir ce qui est commun à tous : partage de l'être, de la parole, de l'esprit, partage du symbolique, qui est le lieu d'expression du sens. Nul ne peut s'approprier la vérité, mais tous doivent pouvoir en vivre. Cet ouvrage analyse ce triple patrimoine spirituel, montre que ces héritages, loin de s'opposer, s'éclairent mutuellement et peuvent se rejoindre dans ce qu'ils ont de meilleur. France Farago, agrégée de philosophie, a été professeur en classes préparatoires à HEC au lycée Henri-IV. Elle enseigne actuellement en Première supérieure au lycée Chaptal. This study examines the history and organization of trans-Saharan trade in western Africa using original source material.

The Hexaglot Bible Wilfrid Laurier Univ.

Press

This book represents the fruit of a long process of study and reflection, a powerful but subtle synthesis, by one of the most eminent scholars of Second-Temple Judaism. Far from a conventional narrative history, it is organized around themes and seeks to uncover the essence of Hebraic/Jewish religious thinking while confronting the phenomenon of its division into several 'parties' and traditions. Drawing also on recent studies of Christianity as a 'Judaism', Sacchi provides a stimulating perspective on the nature of ancient Oriental and Occidental thought and the intellectual and spiritual heritage of European civilization.

Volume IV deals with the 'Middle Ages'. It starts with the expansion of Islam and closes with the discovery of the New World. Various events during this period led to a significant expansion in communications: the rapid spread of Islam and of Gengis Khan's Mongol Empire, as well as the Crusades and the development of trans-Saharan and maritime routes around Africa to the Indian Ocean, leading to multiplied exchanges between the peoples and cultures of Africa, Asia and Europe.

The Metaphysics of Love BRILL

Emmanuel Levinas is best known for having reintroduced the question of ethics into the Continental philosophical tradition. In The Metaphysics of Love, however, Stella Sandford argues that an over-emphasis on ethics in the reception of Levinas's thought has covered over both the basis and the details of his philosophical project—a metaphysics which affirms the necessity to think of an unqualified transcendence as a first principle. Sandford's book is at the same time a powerful feminist critique of both Levinas's gendered philosophical categories and the attempt to reclaim aspects of this philosophy for feminist theory.

Heavenly Priesthood in the Apocalypse of Abraham Wipf and Stock Publishers

This book provides a comprehensive introduction, which focuses on Morocco's history, provides a helpful synopsis of the kingdom, and is supplemented with a useful chronology of major events. Hundreds of cross-referenced dictionary entries on former rulers, current leaders, ancient capitals, significant locations, influential institutions, and crucial aspects of the economy, society, culture and religion form the core of the book. A bibliography of sources is included to promote further more specialized study.

Uprooting and Planting A&C Black

In past years the controversy over Luke's concept of the Spirit has centred on the ethical dimension of his pneumatology. Community-Forming Power sets out to address the issue by assessing the Lukan writings in the light of evidence from Second Temple Judaism and in applying speech-act theory to prophetic utterances. Wenk argues that the Spirit's role in prophecy cannot be limited to the content of the prophetic speech, stripping it artificially from the intention behind it. He further argues that the anointed church continues the liberating work of the anointed messiah in embracing the marginalized, and thus is instrumental in 'realizing good news for the poor'.
